WARDEN RESIGNS AT CARSON PRISON

(By Associated Press.)
CARSON CITY, Sept. 17.—Warden Day of the Nevada state penitentiary has resigned his office as the result of criticism concerning himself and men. His resignation will go into effect on the last day of the month.

CINCINNATI WILL HOLD RATIFICATION

CINCINNATI, Sept. 17.—Beside excursion trains filled with the personnel of the national league Republican clubs which are scheduled to arrive here for the day and night celebration on next Tuesday, it is predicted at the Taft headquarters today that the nearby towns in Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana would swell the expected throng with many marching clubs. There will be a meeting at G. A. R. hall in the daytime and in the evening a rally at Music hall, at which Senator Foraker will deliver an address and introduce Judge Taft, the principal speaker of the meeting. Taft devoted the greater portion of the day in his private quarters working on speeches he is scheduled to deliver through the middle west and north.

COAL OPERATORS HAVE ADJOURNED

HELENA, Mont., Sept. 17.—After having spent two weeks deliberating on a wage scale for Montana the coal operators and representatives of the mine workers adjourned sine die today. This does not necessarily mean a strike or closing of the mines, as the miners have been given the right to take the matter up with the national and district officials.

WAITING FOR BETTER PRICES

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—An upward reaction in the prices of stocks during the early part of today served to demonstrate that a large speculative liquidation was awaiting to take advantage of better prices and a violent relapse from the advance level was consequent. Movement in the early part of the day was greatly confused. Bonds were easy.

BRYAN IN STATE OF DELAWARE

(By Associated Press.)
GARRINGTON, Del., Sept. 17.—Specifically mentioning for the first time the United States Steel corporation and charging its officials with supporting the Republican party in the campaign in return for immunity from prosecution received, William J. Bryan in a speech here today hurled another bomb into the camp of the enemy.
In order to fulfill his engagement here at the hour agreed upon the Democratic candidate traveled over 500 miles and the last sixty-five in a special train which covered the distance in sixty-one minutes. Ten thousand people awaited his coming and his arrival was greeted with cheers.
Bryan spoke on tariff, campaign contributions, guarantee of bank deposits and trusts, and declared that the interests of farmers were on the side of Democracy.

TEDDY EXTENDS THE GLAD HAND

(By Associated Press.)
OYSTER BAY, Sept. 17.—President Roosevelt proved himself an ideal host this afternoon when he entertained the natives of this village at his summer home on Sagamore hill. Each one of the 2000 or more persons who went to see the president was made to feel he or she had been especially honored. For each visitor the president had something of particular interest to say to that person. When the children finally managed to press through the crowd the president beamed with pleasure and patted the youngsters on the back with affectionate little taps as they filed by him. President Roosevelt held the reception so he could renew acquaintances with friends and neighbors and a simple program was arranged.

QUINBY NOMINATED.
(By Associated Press.)
CONCORD, N. H., Sept. 17.—The Republican state convention today nominated Henry B. Quinby governor. Two ballots were necessary for choice and on the decisive one Quinby had a margin of only five votes.

TWELVE DIE FROM CHOLERA.
(By Associated Press.)
